

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

FEBRUARY 16, 1893.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. DAVIS, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following

REPORT:

[To accompany H. R. 7306.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 7306) granting a pension to Maud Case, have examined the same, and report:

The Committee on Invalid Pensions of the House of Representatives having examined fully, reported, and passed said bill, your committee adopt the following:

HOUSE REPORT.

The Committee on Invalid Pensions have considered the bill (H. R. 7306) granting a pension to Maud Case, and submit the following report:

The petitioner is the daughter of Hezekiah Case, who served in Company H, Thirty-third Wisconsin Infantry, from August 21, 1862, to August 9, 1865, and died November 14, 1880, from diseases which the Pension Bureau has accepted as due to his military service.

Two children of the soldier were pensioned until each became 16 years of age; of these Edith Maud, the younger, became 16 years of age August 16, 1886, since which date no pension has been paid. It is shown by testimony of Dr. S. W. Ransom, S. P. Kinney, and Samantha Kinney, of Dodge Center, Minn., that the petitioner is totally blind, and has been so from her birth, and also that she has no property whatever, and is dependent upon others for her support.

And recommend that the bill do pass.
